Register to bid

This is a straightforward process, whether you do it in person, by phone or online.

Register to bid in person

On the day of the auction simply provide your name and address, as well as proof of identity and residence such as a passport or driving license. Once your registration is complete you will be given a paddle, carrying your personal number, for bidding during the auction. This should be returned to the Cashier's Office if you are successful in bidding, or to the registration desk if you are not.

Register to bid by telephone

Bidding by telephone lets you take part in the auction without having to be present in the auction room. If you would like to do this you will need to book yourself in as a telephone bidder in advance by contacting the Bids Office. Places are available on a first-come-first-served basis and may be subject to a minimum lot appraisal. You will also need to fill in a telephone bid form, providing proof of identity and residence and a contact telephone and fax number.

Register to bid on the internet

Register online by visiting our registration page on this site and clicking on the register section. Once you have successfully registered, you will be sent a confirmation email containing your username and password.

Register for live online bidding

Bonhams offers a 'live' online bidding option. If you have registered for online bidding, you will be able to log in with the details you have been given on the day of the auction. You will then be able to follow the auction 'live' and make your bids accordingly. For details, visit the registration page.

How to place a bid

Attending the auction

If you attend in person, you will be given your bidding paddle at registration. When you want to bid on an item, raise the paddle so that the auctioneer can see you. If you are successful, the auctioneer will make a note of your paddle number and you can then pay for the item at the Cashier's Office. If you are bidding on more than one lot, you can pay for everything you have bought in one go at the end of the auction.

Live online bidding

If you have registered for online bidding, you will be able to log in with the details you have been given on the day of the auction. You will then be able to follow the auction 'live' and make your bids accordingly.

Telephone bidding

On the day of the auction, we will telephone you about five lots before your lot is announced. Once bidding begins, we will talk you through as the bids progress and ask you at each stage if you wish to continue. This will carry on until you are successful, or tell us that you want to stop bidding.

Absentee bids

Online

If you are unable to be at the auction personally you can make an absentee bid online. Just register to bid in the normal way, then, using the online catalog, select the Lot you would like to bid on and click on the 'bid/track' link. Enter the username and password you will have been given in your confirmation email and leave a bid. You will be notified by email if you are successful.

Other

You are welcome to place an absentee bid, which we can make on your behalf during the auction. All you need to do is complete a bidding form specifying the Lot(s) on which you want to leave an absentee bid. This gives us written permission to act as your representative to try and secure the Lot(s) at the lowest possible price, subject to any reserve and interest from other bidders. The bidding form can be found in the relevant sale catalog, or you can obtain one at a Bonhams saleroom or online. You should give us the maximum Hammer Price you are prepared to pay, (remembering to take into account the Buyer's Premium and any taxes payable on top of the Hammer Price). We may need to see proof of identity and residence.
